LEONARD HALL

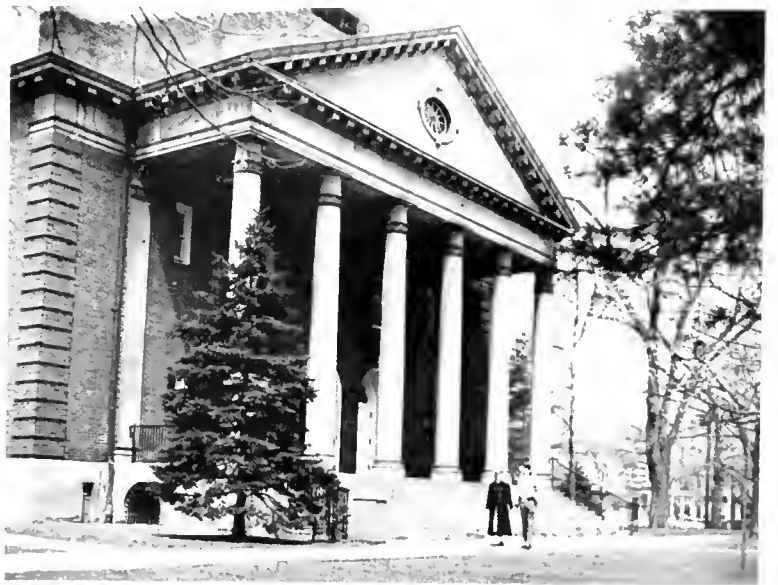

McELHANEY HALL

WILSON HALL

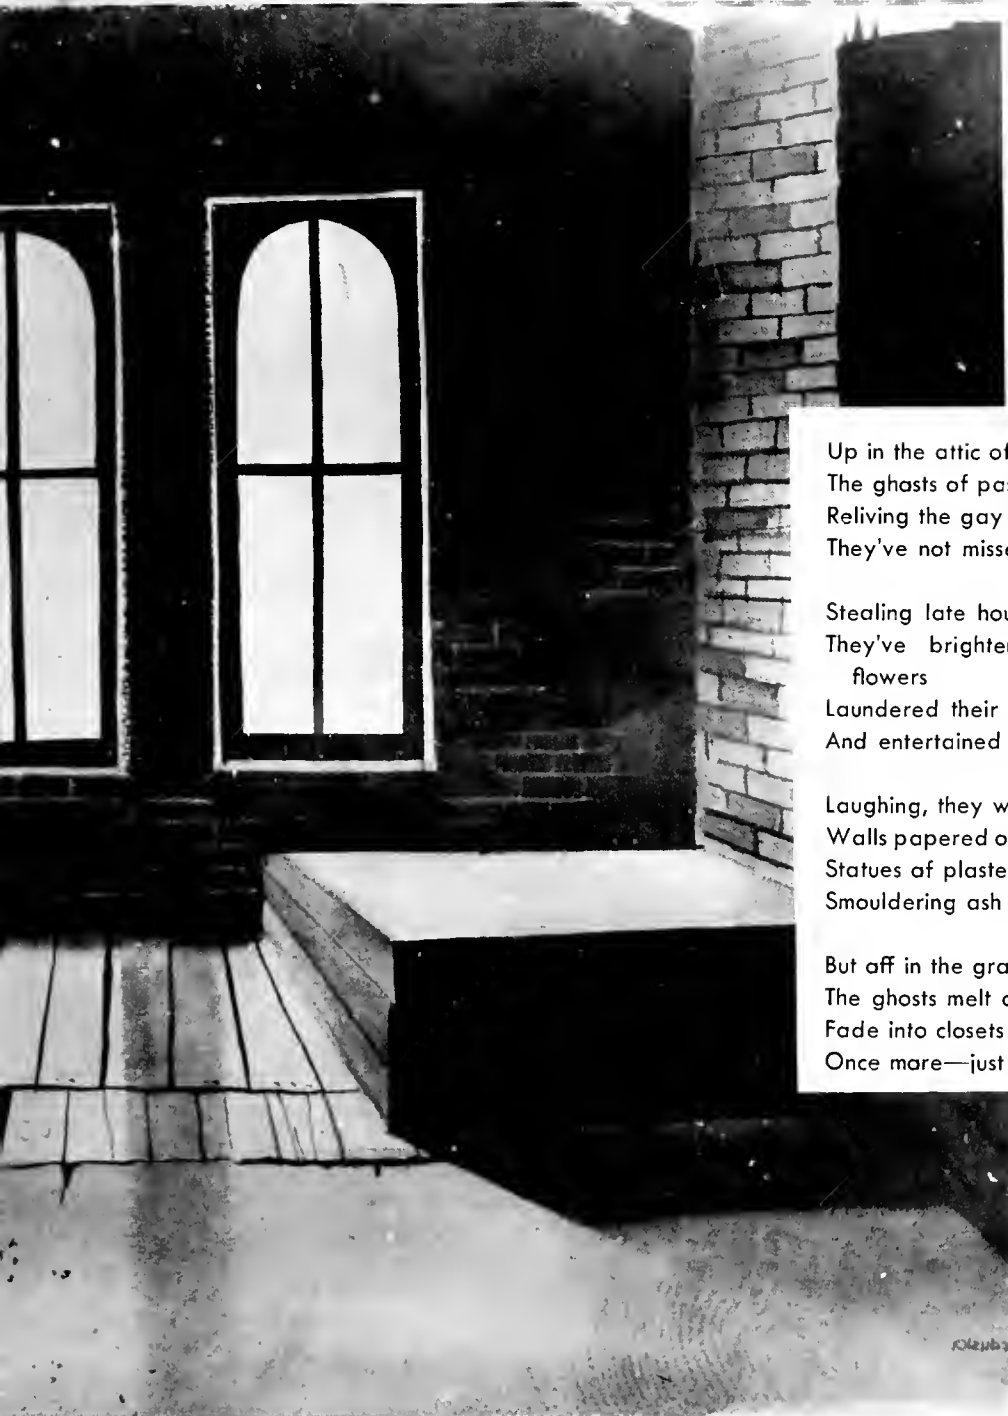

JOHN SUTTON HALL

WALLER GYMNASIUM

Up in the attic of Jahn Sutton Hall
The ghosts of past ages are having a ball
Reliving the gay times, riotous fun
They've not missed a trick; they've pulled every one.

Stealing late hours, they've shampooed in showers
They've brightened their dressers with campus-grown flowers
Laundered their undies in washbowls forbidden
And entertained lovers in corners well hidden.

Laughing, they whisper of stashed-away toasters
Walls papered over with hand-bills and posters
Statues of plaster in burlesque attire
Smouldering ash trays once blazing afire.

But off in the gray dawn the first rooster crows
The ghosts melt away like spring-thawing snaws
Fade into closets and white-shrouded chairs
Once mare—just the dim quiet attic upstairs.

The background is a complex abstract composition. It features several thick, black, wavy lines that flow across the frame, creating a sense of movement and depth. These lines are layered and overlap, with some appearing more prominent than others. Superimposed on these organic forms are several sharp, geometric shapes, primarily triangles and quadrilaterals, drawn with thin black outlines. These shapes intersect and overlap each other and the wavy lines, creating a dynamic and somewhat chaotic visual field. The overall effect is one of high contrast and intricate detail.

ADMINISTRATION

President of the College: Dr. Willis E. Pratt

There are many characteristics by which a college is judged—the professional preparation and experience of its staff, the caliber of its student body, the facilities which it has at its command, and the intellectual climate of the institution. We are confident that our staff at Indiana is a most competent one and our admissions policy guarantees a student body of high grade. While the facilities of the College are not extensive enough for the size of the student body, those which are now available are of good quality.

Many factors contribute to the intellectual climate on a campus. Chief among these is an academic freedom, unfettered by outside interference, which permits and encourages free inquiry and a discussion of controversial issues. To this is added a concern for and an interest in the cultural life which the College affords. In these respects Indiana prides itself on the emphasis which it places on the importance of these intellectual standards.

All of these characteristics go to make up the traditions of any institution of higher learning. The importance which Indiana has attached to these characteristics over a period of more than 80 years has given it a rich background upon which there is based a sound program of teacher education for today's world. It has contended that teachers must be first of all educated people with a broad general education who utilize in their thinking the scientific method. The modern teachers college no longer bases its program on the techniques and the methods inherent in a good teaching process. While it is still concerned with these, it is much more concerned with the more fundamental purpose of preparing a really educated person as a teacher.

ART

Theater Arts Class works on scenery for Andraclēs.

Robert C. Seelhorst, Dr. Orval Kipp (Director), Ralph W. Reynolds.

The Art Department provides an opportunity for the student to specialize in one or more of the art fields. English, science, music, and social studies are required of an art student while he is securing a basic foundation in art.

The originality of ideas and unusual skills of this department can be found all over campus. These people are the first to be consulted for proms, and many of the signs for different events have come from their drawing boards.

Although the department is the smallest on Indiana's campus, it is rapidly growing as each new freshman class brings with it more and more students who are interested in the field of art.

Students working in Crafts for Elementary Grades Class.

Dr. Lawrence McVitty, John A. Ghrist, Robert J. Cronouer, and Mrs. Charlotte M. Hanten.

BUSINESS

BUSINESS: A. E. Drumheller, Director.

From McElhane Hall can be heard the clicking of many typewriters. Here is located the Business Education Department where students of ISTC are being trained in the skills necessary for teaching or supervising high school commercial courses. Our future business teachers are instructed in the use of modern business machines, and they obtain a knowledge of business practices through courses in accounting and selling. At the culmination of four years of study in the Business Education Department, the students receive certification and their coveted B. S. degrees.

HOME ECONOMICS

Miss Helen Loftis, Dr. Opal T. Rhodes (Director), Miss Rachel D. Moss, Mrs. Fannie D. Smith.

The main purpose of the Home Economics Department is to prepare men and women for the responsibilities and problems of homemaking and family leadership. It also prepares the home economist for professional life. Through the laboratories and other home facilities of the college, the student of home economics is able to put into practice the principles which are learned in the classroom. One of the interests of the Home Economics Department is the nursery school for children two and three years of age. Juniors in the department handle the school cafeteria where commuters, Keith pupils, and the faculty eat lunch. There are also two home management houses where the students learn all aspects of homemaking including child care.

MUSIC

Seated: Miss Gladys Dunkleburger, Miss Catherine Carl, Dr. Clel T. Silvey (Director), Mrs. Arvilla T. Harrold, Standing: Charles A. Davis, Dr. Russel Nelson, Thomas Hughes, Walter Gala.

The music education curriculum is concerned with three major obligations to the college students at Indiana. The department offers a four-year program which qualifies the graduating student to teach and supervise public school music. Secondly, it provides four professionalized courses which are requirements for the elementary division. Finally, the department serves the whole college through its four choral and six instrumental groups.

The governing body of the music education students is the music council. Four elected officers and eight representatives, one of these representatives selected from each of the music classes, make up this organization. In addition to the regular formal concerts during the year by seven of the student music groups, other services are provided for general college needs: special music for Vespers, educational conferences, College Convocations, Swing Out, music shows for football games and parades for the community.

It's elementary—ar is it? Satisfying the inquisitive minds of children enrolled in kindergarten, primary, and intermediate grades is one aim of the elementary school teacher. There is no specialization in elementary as there is in the other departments on campus. The teacher must be able to guide the physical, mental, and social development of children and furnish them with new learning experiences that are challenging as well as meaningful. Through class observations in their sophomore year, and practice teaching in their junior and senior years, the future teachers in this field are introduced to the problems that will face them upon graduation. At Indiana the student is taught through classroom experiences the use of elementary school materials and procedures.

MATH: James E. McKinley, Dr. I. L. Stright, Dr. Joy Mahachek (Director).

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION: Seated: Miss Ruth Podbielski, Miss Malindo Hamblen, Mrs. Delares Merritt. Standing: Lewis H. Shaffer, Regis A. McKnight, George P. Miller (Director), Samuel G. Smith, Owen J. Dougherty.

SCIENCE: Seated: Daniel G. Reiber, Dr. Dwight Sollberger (Director), Crayton T. Jackson, Arthur G. Shields. Standing: Dr. Willis Bell, Dr. Donald Hoffmaster, Paul M. Waddell, Adrian W. Ruland, Edward N. Brown.

SOCIAL STUDIES: Seated: Dr. John R. Sahli, Miss Jane S. Mervine, Dr. Raymond Lee (Director), Miss Florence Wallace, Michael Kirlik. Standing: Dr. Albert J. Wahl, C. M. Johnson, Dr. Clyde Gelbach, James G. Kehew.

Automatic members of the secondary organization are the students of the six secondary departments: English and Speech, Foreign Languages, Geography, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies.

The student gains a knowledge of materials and procedures, on appreciation of the high school in connection with community life and an opportunity, through student teaching, to become acquainted with students on the secondary level. Dr. Joy E. Mahachek is the departmental coordinator.

The State Teachers College at Indiana is the only State Teachers College in the Commonwealth which has an Army ROTC unit. The mission of this unit is to produce junior officers who have qualities and attributes essential to their progressive and continued development as officers of the United States Army.

Participation in the ROTC for the four year college course enables the student to work towards a college degree and at the same time a commission as second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve.

Martin, Miss Arlene Risher, Miss Margaret Gabal, Robert O. Warren, Edward Mott, Martin L. Stapleton, Miss Jaann Walthour, Mrs. Lida T. Fleming, Daniel DiCicco, Robert C. Seelhorst, Earl S. Hoenstine.

Student teaching is the course which opens to the student rich experiences in the various aspects of the work of the teacher. The students get their first taste of teaching in Keith School, the local public schools, and 22 other teaching centers located throughout southwestern Pennsylvania. Students acquire knowledge and develop teaching skills in their chosen subject while working with the children and competent supervisors.

STUDENTS

President, John Iames; Vice President, David Frick; Secretary, Daria Troyan; Treasurer, Jack Balderson (absent at time of picture).

Four years ago, a group of students stood in awe as they wondered what was in store for them in college.

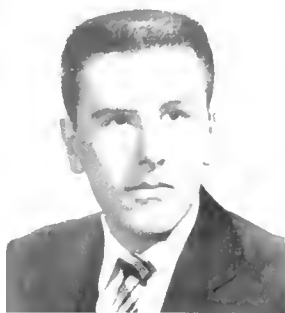

The years that followed were enlightening. Today, in retrospect, these same students are reminded of hard work, convocations and cultural life programs, plays, proms, parties, and student teaching with its many problems.

On May 29, they will see the climax of four years of study as the class of 1957 becomes a part of the history of Indiana State Teachers College.

The year's officers are President, John Iames; Vice-President, Dave Frick; Secretary, Daria Troyan; and Jack Balderson, Treasurer. The adviser is Mrs. Merritt.

The Junior Class returned this year to set a new precedent for ISTC. Along with the Senior Class they hired a big name band, Jerry Mercer, for the Junior-Senior Prom on October 20th. This was the second new idea introduced by the class of '58. Last year for the Freshman-Sophomore Prom they made an artificial ceiling for the gymnasium to be used for future events. The Juniors, who have lived through Freshman customs and Junior Standing tests, are now looking forward to their Senior year, the last year before they begin their teaching careers. The class retained Tom Coder as President this year. The newly elected officers were Don Wykoff as Vice-President, June Ritchey as Secretary, and Virginia Stoner as Treasurer. The adviser for the class is Miss Rachel Moss.

Remembering last year's antics before Homecoming, the sophomores of '57 were ready to bark crisp orders to the new freshman class and to drill them through customs. Second semester arrives—those jaunty smiles on sophomore faces were changed to depressed frowns as they prepared to tackle Junior Standing. Out came the almanac, encyclopedias, the news magazines, and the newspapers for the past year. But, Junior Standing was temporarily forgotten as planning for the Freshman-Sophomore Prom went into full swing in February. Those gay smiles soon re-appeared as sophomores enjoyed the highlight of their school year. Thus another year had passed; the sophomores were now juniors at I. S. T. C. The Officers for this year were President, Dave Bird; Vice-President, Don Grubbs; Secretary, Fran Feduska; Treasurer, Kathie Conroy. The adviser for the class was Mr. Crayton Jackson.

The Frosh this year had a considerably shorter period than normal in which to shed their greenness. After Homecoming on October 6th, all the tortures and punishments of customs week were quickly forgotten, and the freshmen were then formally accepted on the I. S. T. C. campus. Everyone became acquainted and many new friendships were established.

The rush of sorority and fraternity parties early in the second semester played an integral part in the social life of the freshmen. This was a period of gay parties and keen enjoyment.

The zenith of the freshmen social life was on March 2nd when they held their prom in conjunction with the sophomores.

The freshman officers for this year were President, David Cook; Vice-President, Thomas Dickey; Secretary, Sonnie Lee Rabenstein; and Treasurer, Jo Lee Miller. Dr. Clyde Gelbach was the class adviser.

SOCIAL LIFE

STUDENT COUNCIL

President of Student Council, David Loird.

The Student Council is the representative of the ISTC student body. It strives to promote closer harmony among students, faculty, and administration; to provide an opportunity for discussion of student problems; to create a friendly atmosphere on campus. This year the council aided three foreign students with $200 grants toward their education, presented the honorary mention award at the Homecoming Day Parade, and made appointments for the editorships of various student publications. Much emphasis was placed upon the newly organized Tea and Tour Committee, whose purpose is to entertain parents of visiting high school students while entrance tests are being administered. A Committee to study freshman customs for next year was formed. The group sponsored a freshman orientation program, sponsored the Bloodmobile, and contributed to worthwhile organizations from the campus Chest Fund. The Student Council, by creating a School Spirit Committee, hopes to arouse a more enthusiastic response from the student body in college activities.

WOMEN'S COLLEGIATE ASSOCIATION

The WCA, as quoted from its preamble, is "A combination of spirit and organization that is truly government of the students, by the students, and for the students." The Presidents of John Sutton, Thomas Sutton, Clark Hall and the President from each women's cottage make up this forceful group. As each resident woman knows, the success of the whole undertaking rests equally upon each individual. Highlights of the year's activities were the Freshman get-acquainted dance, the Halloween party, and teas. One activity which netted a large profit was the selling of sloppy joes in the dorm. At the pre-Christmas dormitory open house the students were given an opportunity to compete in displaying the holiday decorations on their doors. The officers were President, Wanda Scott; Vice-President, Frances Dietz; Secretary, Pamela Livingston; Treasurer, Connie Crosser. The adviser is Miss Martha C. Faust.

NON-RESIDENT'S WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Non-Resident Women's League seeks to help day students make friends and enter into the social life of the campus. Meetings are held in Iroquois House at 12:30 p. m. the fourth Friday of each month. The League sponsors a fall and a spring outing at the College Lodge each year. The officers were President, Mary Bloom; Vice-President, Janet Campbell; and Secretary-Treasurer, Violet Waltermire. Miss Arlene Risher is adviser to the group.

Wando Scott, Mitzi Smith, Ned Wert, Carol Thomas.

TEA AND TOUR COMMITTEE

The Tea and Tour Committee was organized this year at ISTC to acquaint parents as well as students with our campus. While the high school seniors were taking their entrance examination, a tea was held in Rec Lounge followed by a guided tour of the campus for the parents. Headed by Carol Thomas with the help of Student Council members, this new committee was helpful in promoting recreation and education for the parents. The adviser was Dr. S. Trevor Hadley.

JUDICIAL BOARD

The Judicial Board is the governing body which represents all resident women on campus. Two girls are chosen as representatives from each class. This board meets every Monday evening to review misdemeanors of the past week. Certain set rules are followed in order to determine penalties. The board also distributes late permissions according to class status. This year's Chairman is Joan Trone and the Secretary is Martha McGeary. This organization for promoting the welfare of the resident women is under the guidance of Miss Martha Faust, Dean of Women.

CULTURAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Ferm Lash and Ned Wert

The Cultural Life Committee, consisting of faculty members and student representatives appointed by the President and from the Student Council, is headed by Mr. A. E. Drumheller. Programs presented during the 1956-57 season included Salisti di Zagreb, world famous string ensemble from Yugoslavia; the Canadian Players, of Stratford, Ontario, in Peer Gynt; the world-renowned Vienna Choir Boys; Jose Greco, with a Spanish dance troupe, and, as the final performance in the series, actress Cornelia Otis Skinner.

THE CUE

W. Love, J. Thomas, J. Conrad, C. Schroder, K. Baer.

Our Cue, a small but valuable handbook, contains many items of interest to students at ISTC. Since it is distributed before the start of the fall session, the rules governing students and activities, and the description of college organizations are particularly helpful to freshmen and other new students. The Cue is financed by the Student Cooperative Association and is under the advisement of Dr. Maurice L. Rider. Editors and illustrators for the 1956-57 school year were Jennifer Thomas and Carol Schrader. Other members of the staff were Karen Baer, John Conrad, Nancy Houser, Willeta Love, Joyce Lyons, and Carolyn Smith.

INDIANA PENN

The "Indiana Penn" is the weekly campus newspaper at ISTC. Written and managed by students, it is an uncensored college paper.

Three purposes of the "Penn" have been emphasized this year. Fulfilling the function of any newspaper, the "Penn" gives its readers unbiased coverage of news events on and about campus.

Concerned with more than handling news, the "Penn" provides workshop experience in journalism for its staff.

Outweighing other purposes, the "Penn" attempts to be a medium of expression of student life and student opinion at ISTC.

"Indiana Penn" staff members this year attended the Associated Collegiate Convention in New York to better acquaint themselves with the publication and management of a college newspaper.

Each semester applications for editor-in-chief and news editor are received by the paper's consultant, Arthur F. Nicholson. Appointments to these positions are made by the Student Council. Staff members are chosen by the "Penn" editor-in-chief.

This year a Wahr Fellowship of $100 a semester is available to the "Penn" editor-in-chief in addition to a regular salary of $75 a semester from the Student Co-operative Association.

THE OAK

As firm as the tree from which it derived its name, The Oak stands as a permanent record of our college days. As we look through its leaves, we can trace our development from rough-hewn freshmen to polished seniors. In it are captured precious memories, from the first Homecoming to the Senior Prom. The Oak brings to life again all the happiness, worry, and excitement of our years spent in Indiana State Teachers College. Using pictures and print, The Oak preserves our achievements as a college and as individual students. Through this medium, we give you a lasting account of Indiana and you.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association is open to all students and faculty members. This organization plays an important part in welcoming the new freshmen to the campus each year by having various get-togethers, such as the Frash Sing, and the Big-Little Sister Party. A combination of the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A., the Student Christian Association sponsors weekly morning watch services and regular weekly meetings which strive to meet the mental, social, and spiritual needs of all the students. The SCA also holds special services at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, and participates in the World Student Christian Federation Universal Day of Prayer.

RELIGIOUS LIFE COMMITTEE

To correlate the activities of the various campus church organizations is the purpose of the Religious Life Committee, which is interdenominational. It is composed of representatives of all the church clubs, Student Christian Association, and Campus Christian Fellowship.

The Religious Life Committee sponsors the monthly vesper programs and is responsible for the production of the annual Christmas pageant. Each year, leaders outstanding in their fields of religion and character education come to the campus to give sermons and conduct classes on various subjects. Dr. John Sahli is the adviser.

BAPTIST

STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

A new organization on campus this year was the Baptist Student Fellowship. The club is open to all Baptist students who are interested in fellowship which emphasizes spiritual growth centered upon a personal faith in Christ as Savior. Its aim is for cooperative and coordinated campus service and educational promotion of inter-denominational and inter-collegiate understanding. This organization's biweekly meetings consist of devotions, a discussion or program, and social fellowship. Special events in this year's calendar were a Halloween weiner roast and a Christmas Party. Serving as officers were Kay Hollis as President, Shirley Wilsman as Vice-President, Jack Westwood as Treasurer, and Betty Jane Edmondson as Secretary. The faculty adviser of this group is Dr. George Stouffer, Jr.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club is connected with the Christ Episcopal Church of Indiana and encourages students of ISTC to keep up their religious life while attending college. Cheer was brought to the St. Barnabas Home for Incurable Men and Boys at Thanksgiving when Canterbury members brought gifts of food. They also became acquainted with students of their own faith in various meetings throughout the year of all the Canterbury Clubs in the Western Pennsylvania Diocese.

The officers were President, Beverly Woford; Vice-President, Tom Robins; Secretary, Alice Kennedy; Treasurer, Betsy Eldridge. The adviser is Miss Malindo Hamblen.

The Erskine Club offers the 193 United Presbyterian students at ISTC a full church related program. Each Sunday morning a Bible class is held at the local United Presbyterian Church. In the evening the club meets for a forum-discussion period and refreshments. The September Chili Supper got the social events started for the Erskinites. This was followed by a bowling party, and a dinner at Christmas. Second semester events included a Valentine Party and a pre-Easter Dinner, which climaxed the year. Officers are Ruth Martin, President; Karen Razey, Vice-President; Ann Latshaw, Secretary-Treasurer. The adviser is Mr. James Green.

The LSA began this year's activities with a school party held in September. Before Thanksgiving they had a dinner followed by a vesper service. Later in November the club sponsored a delicious smorgasbord. Also on the social calendar was the annual Christmas get-together and a circus party at the church. In the spring the members attended the LSA Regional Conference. On Palm Sunday a breakfast followed the Communion Service. Throughout the year, following their supper meetings, the club attended the college vesper services as a group. Officers were Wanda Beringer, President; Wayne Conrad, Vice-President; Jeanne Dunmire, Secretary-Treasurer. The advisers were Miss Margaret Gobel and Mr. Daniel Reiber.

The purposes of the Methodist Club are: To provide Christian fellowship for Methodist students and friends; to develop leadership; to present an opportunity for students and the faculty members to get acquainted; to foster threefold growth of the individual-spiritual, mental, and physical.

The Methodist Club began its college year with a reception at the First Methodist Church. Among its outstanding programs were the silent Communion Services and a visit to the Jewish Synagogue. The officers were Irene Thompson, President; Brian Johnson, Vice-President; Lois Kennedy, Secretary; and Doris Anderson, Treasurer. The advisers are Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Lore.

The Newman Club on our campus has a larger membership this year than ever before. There were many activities to keep them busy among which were Christmas Caroling and a Valentine Party at Willard Home. Newman Club holds meetings twice a month with Father Miller or some other guest speaker present. Communion breakfasts are held for the members once a month at the Youth Center. The officers for this year were Thomas Fabian, President; Gary Kiefer, Vice-President; Marie Schumach, Recording Secretary; Sally Miller, Corresponding Secretary; and John McDermott, Treasurer. The group's adviser was Lt. Colonel John D'Esposito.

Belonging to a church which takes a special interest in you is probably your foremost memory about the church back home. The Presbyterian Club provides a church home for those students who are away from their own churches. Some evenings are spent in serious religious discussions, while others pass with just friendly comments on the church ideals. A few of the year's activities included dinners every month that were provided by the church, a Halloween party at the Lodge, a Christmas party, and a Communion breakfast at Easter time. The President of the Presbyterian Club was Joonne Hay; Vice-President, Alice Schuster; Secretary-Treasurer, Judy Sproat. The club's adviser is Dr. Willis Bell.

Vice President F. Massabni; Secretary B. Brinkley; Treasurer S. Dimitroff; President-G. Adamczyk.

The Orthodox Christian Fellowship, during its second year on the ISTC campus, was an active club. The Club met the second and fourth Tuesday of every month, and speakers, films, recordings, and panel discussions made up the programs. A news-letter was started this year, and the choir resumed activity more extensively. The choir sang for services held at Indiana and Altoona, and in various churches in the area. One of the service projects of the club was the donation of six books on orthodoxy to the library. The social activities of the club included an outing at the Lodge in September and a Valentine Party at the Lodge in February. The officers were: President, Gene Adamczak; Vice-President, Fadlo Massabni; Secretary, Barbara Brinkley; Treasurer, Sylvia Dimitroff; adviser is Miss Gladys Dunkelberger.

SECONDARY CLUB

The Secondary Education Club has been reorganized this year into several groups. The largest group includes all the freshmen in the Secondary Division. The six other groups include students majoring in the several secondary departments of English and Speech, Foreign Language, Geography, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies. Each of the sections will enjoy both social and professional meetings and each will contribute to the pre-teaching experiences of secondary students.

Throughout the year the Freshmen section of the Club sponsored various social outings at the College Lodge. The first outing of the year was a picnic held on October 2nd. The adviser for the freshmen section is Dr. Joy E. Mahachek.

ENGLISH-SPEECH CLUB

The English-Speech Club is composed of majors in English and Speech. In October they held a social-professional outing at the College Lodge at which several members gave readings. During the year a number of seminars were again held, with Dr. Beardman, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Ensley and Dr. Hayward in charge of discussions dealing with various aspects of speech, television and drama. Officers were Vita Silvestri, President; Robert Allwine, Vice-President; Banna Bell, Secretary; Marlin Ja Bain, Treasurer. The adviser is Dr. Rhades Stabley.

The Foreign Languages Club is one of the newest of the secondary Clubs. Its main purpose is to better acquaint the members with the customs and the languages of foreign countries. The club has also developed a "big sister" policy whereby any new student of Indiana is greeted and shown the college by all members. Any one who has an interest in a foreign language is cordially invited to become a member of the Foreign Languages Club. At the meetings, which are held once every month, much is accomplished from the numerous discussions which develop. One meeting was devoted to a Christmas Party this year, and at another exciting meeting, a guest speaker gave tips on teaching a foreign language. The officers were President, Diane Sleigh; Vice-President, Gail Adams; Secretary, Sally Cramer; Treasurer, Barbara Shuppe. The adviser was Dr. Edward Bieghler.

Membership in this active organization is open to all members of the College who are interested in social studies. The club held a straw vote election on campus and spent time in studying the complete make-up of the election. They learned more about parliamentary procedure through movies. In the second semester some of the members attended the Inter-collegiate Conference on Government in Harrisburg. They had time for fellowship as well as scholarship in their Christmas Party and other social meetings. The officers for this year are Angela Santoriella, President; Herbert Nath, Vice-President; Joanne Bassert, Secretary; and Ann Kraus, Treasurer. The advisers are Mr. C. M. Johnson and Dr. A. J. Wahl.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club, consisting of students from all departments, presents monthly a series of programs of lectures, movies, and discussions by members. The purpose of the club is to better acquaint its members with current international problems. This year's activities included sending representatives to the Model United Nations Assembly Conference and the Pennsylvania IRC Conference, field trips to the Foreign Policy Association, holding a model UN Assembly on campus, and a banquet. The officers were Alice Smead, President; Ernest Bartolomucci, Vice-President; Ann Kraus, Secretary; and Elaine Frankhouser, Treasurer. Dr. Clyde Gelbach, Dr. Raymond Lee, and Miss Florence Wallace are the advisers.

MASQUERS

As the name implies, Masquers is a theatrical group: This organization was formed to further dramatic activities on I.S.T.C.'s campus. They certainly have carried out their purpose, as they present several major productions and one-act plays each year. For the Homecoming Convocation, Masquers presented Cumberland Fair, a one-act musical. Their annual fall presentation was George Bernard Shaw's Androcles and the Lion. Membership in the Masquers is open to all who have shown interest in dramatics. The Masquers participate in all phases of dramatics from working backstage to acting. Masquers were under the leadership of Solly Igo, President; Larry Kalp, Vice-President; and Jim Fallone, Secretary-Treasurer. Their adviser for this year is Dr. Wayne Hayward.

FRESHMEN HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The purpose of this division is to give the freshmen in the department a chance to take part in the various club activities and to prepare themselves for entrance into the upperclass division. Throughout the year professional speakers are brought in to give the newcomers additional information, other than what is obtained from classes.

ART CLUB

The Art Department offers membership in the Art Club, which sponsors professional and social activities including trips to museums and other displays of art. Membership in this club is open to interested students. The Art Club entered the "Destination Moon" float in the Homecoming Parade. At the beginning of the year a get-acquainted party was held for the new members and the faculty. This year a forum was held at which the student teachers in art discussed the advantages and the obstacles met by the student teacher. The officers of the club were President, William Berkey; Vice-President, Richard Charley; Secretary, Sylvio Pickle; and Treasurer, Shirley Riley. The adviser is Dr. Orval Kipp.

The Indiana College Choir, which is under the direction of Charles A. Davis, seeks to enrich the cultural and religious life not only of the college but of the entire community. The members of the choir are upper class music majors, or students of other departments who have chosen the choir as an extracurricular activity. In either case, the student must have been a member of the Women's or Men's Glee Club. The aim of the choir is to perform the higher forms of choral music in as professional a manner as possible. As well as giving concerts in local communities, the choir makes a tour of neighboring towns and cities. Each year the choir gives a concert in Pittsburgh to climox the year's events.

COLLEGE CHOIR

WOMEN'S CHORUS

The Women's Chorus is open to anyone who desires to participate in group singing. Entrance is gained through tryouts. This year the girls plan to take tours to some of the nearby schools and present a program for the student body. They also provide the music for two of the monthly vesper programs, and in the spring they give their annual concert.

The officers of the chorus were Carolyn Bovaird, President; Carolyn Heilman, Corresponding Secretary; Martha Molner, Secretary; Louise Bloom and Helen Kiral, Librarians; Nancy Shive, Accompanist. Miss Gladys Dunkleberger is the director of the group.

SYMPHONIC BAND

The Symphonic Band is an organization devoted to the study of band music as a serious and distinctive medium of musical expression. Its membership represents a select group of instrumentalists and is open to music majors and general college students who can satisfy the requirements. The Symphonic Band appears in concerts at the college and nearby communities. Three rehearsals are held each week under the direction of Mr. David McNaughton.

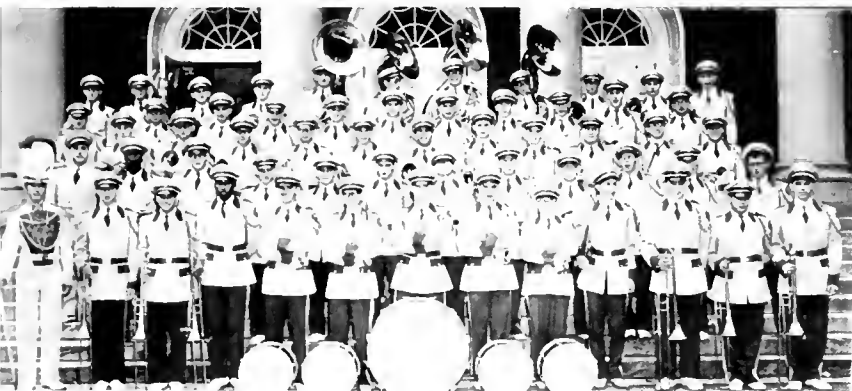

The ISTC Moccasin Band and girls' Drill Team urged the 1956 football team on to victory with the high spirited songs on the sidelines and the snappy routines at halftime. The sixty band members, led by drum major Dave Hill, displayed their musical talent expertly and were received with enthusiasm by the spectators. Student directors were Don Batdorf and Houston Miles.

The Girls' Drill Team was a new addition to the halftime program. Dressed in buckskin trimmed with gold Indian braid, the forty-two high stepping squaws made a colorful contrast to the red and gray uniforms of the band. Ruth Martin and Shirley Miller acted as co-captains in assisting with the routine workouts.

Mr. David McNaughton is band director and Mr. Daniel DiCicco directs the Drill Team.

The Marching Band also performed at the Halloween, Homecoming, Old Fashioned Bargain Days and Armistice Day parades.

MARCHING BAND

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

To sing good music and to have a good time doing so is the aim of the Men's Glee Club. This group helps to enrich college life by appearing at concerts and convocations. It also makes a tour of nearby high schools. Although men from all departments who like to sing are invited to join, the majority are in the Music Department.

Perhaps the appearance for which the Glee Club is most noted is their singing of the English Boar's Head Carol at the annual Christmas Dance. This has been a campus tradition since 1930.

The conductor, Mr. Charles Davis, likes to think of the Glee Club as a way to foster enjoyment for singing. As a result, the size of the group has grown larger each year. The President of the Glee Club is Dave Hill; William Burer is the Librarian.

STRING ORCHESTRA

The string orchestra is composed of the members of the string section of the Symphony Orchestra and all others who are interested in string instruments. The orchestra makes it possible for Indiana string players to develop their skill and technique in playing music written especially for a string ensemble. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Jerome Landsman, presented a program for the Christmas convocation.

To increase and enrich its repertoire, this group studies music written by the old masters as well as music by contemporary composers.

The orchestra makes many appearances in Indiana and nearby communities to stimulate interest in string music.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

This year the Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Stitt consisted of sixty pieces. Since the organization is open to any student with orchestra experience, it drew its membership from all departments, with a large percentage not being in the music department. On campus the orchestra played for the Thanksgiving and Easter Convocations and the Central Western Educational Conference. In addition it presented concerts for several high schools in the area. As a special project during Music Appreciation Week the orchestra played a concert for the borough elementary schools. This organization specializes in playing symphonic literature. The Associate Conductor is Mr. Jerome Landsman, who is also the Concert Master.

ELEMENTARY CLUB

All students in the elementary education department are members of the Association of Childhood Education. The A.C.E. is a professional organization which sponsors varied social and cultural meetings throughout the year aimed at contributing to the goals and achievements of its members. An elected council and the officers guide the activities of the group. The officers for this year were Carmel Monks, President; David Bird, Vice-President; Sally Sipe, Corresponding Secretary; Liz Hogan, Recording Secretary; and Helen Letterle, Treasurer. The advisers are Miss Lois Anderson and Miss Anna O'Toole.

One of our busy clubs on campus is the Junior Chamber of Commerce. This organization helps to promote unity among the students in the Business Department through outings and professional meetings. In addition to these activities, the Junior Chamber of Commerce gives a party each year for the children of the Willard Home. The organization is on call for meetings, and every student in the business education curriculum is eligible for membership. This year, the officers were William Prentice, President; David Hammerschmidt, Vice-President; Carol Miller, Corresponding Secretary; Margaret Jack, Recording Secretary; and Myrna Karns, Treasurer. Miss Arlene Risher and Mr. Harold W. Thomas are serving as advisers.

Alpha Omega Gamma is an honorary geography fraternity whose purpose on campus is to advance professional and social contacts in the field of geography. To be eligible, students must be geography majors or minors, have at least six hours credit in the field of geography with a B average and an overall scholastic average of 1.70.

In trying to advance geography at ISTC the fraternity held panel discussions, had lectures, and purchased books for the college library. Also, delegates were sent to the meetings of the various Geography Councils, and members were encouraged to contribute to the geographical magazines. Another project this year was sending magazines to universities in other countries. At Christmas a social was held at the college lodge and a banquet for the members was held in the spring.

Pi Omega Pi is an honorary business fraternity. Eligible for membership are those students who with at least fifteen hours in commerce and education have maintained a high scholastic average. The aim of this organization is to establish high ideals in business and professional life by promoting interest and scholarship in commerce.

As a special project this year, the pledge class printed a handbook. The fraternity also sent a representative to the national, biennial Pi Omega Pi conference, which was held this year in Chicago.

Alpha Sigma Alpha began their busy year by entering "Madame Butterfly" as their float in the Homecoming Parade in October. Also during Homecoming weekend they had open house and a tea in their newly decorated Sorority room. The Alpha Sigs participated in the annual Greek Sing followed by a Founders' Day luncheon on November 17. Perhaps the most memorable event of the fall season was a coed party which was held at the Lodge. The year was brought to a close with a breakfast and farewell party for the Seniors.

"The Birds and the Bees" was the title of the float entered by the Alpha Sigma Taus in the Homecoming Parade with a tea for the alumnae held afterward. Next on the list of activities was participation in the October Greek Sing. A Founders' Day Banquet with the alumnae chapter was held in November. Plans were under way to complete the furnishing of the sorority room. At Christmas, the girls again sent a box of school supplies to the Pine Mountain Settlement School at Pine Mountain, Kentucky. The annual party given by the Tau pledges for the members took place in March, and a final event, an outing, was held at the Lodge in May.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

To begin the year, the Betas had a pizza party in September. On Homecoming, the Beta Sigs entertained their alumnae at tea in the sorority room after the parade in which their float was "Song of the South." Observation of Founders' Day was a banquet held on December 12, followed by a gay Christmas Party. Betas were kept busy second semester with rushing and pledging in February. The underprivileged children of Indiana were again treated to an Easter egg hunt at the Colledge Lodge. Initiation and installation of new officers was held later in April, with the annual Swing Out Tea the first of May. To round out the year, the Beta Sigs honored their seniors at a farewell banquet at Rustic Lodge.

DELTA ZETA

When Delta Zeta returned to the campus this year they were confronted with a big challenge. A merger was being planned which would unite Delta Sigma Epsilon with Delta Zeta. The merger was completed on October 1.

Delta Zeta helps in every way possible to contribute to the support of Gallaudet College for the deaf in Washington, D. C. It is the only college of its kind, and the sorority helps by giving money for hearing aids and books for the library.

Everyone has watched Delta Zeta throughout the year to see just what would happen. The girls showed them that friendship, sisterhood, and cooperation aren't just words but ideals that can be accomplished by working together.

Ph. Mu Sorority Room

PHI MU

The first event of the Phi Mus was a weekend retreat at the Lions Health Camp. Their entry in the Homecoming parade, entitled "The Jazz Singer," was well worth the time and effort put into it. Following the parade, the Phi Mus entertained with a tea and Mothers Ceremony held in their sorority room. The college lodge was the scene of their informal party "Rustic Rumpus," which was held in November. Other activities included the pledge dance, Founders Day, and the senior banquet in April.

This year the sorority's philanthropic service was aiding the Phi Mu Foundation for Social Service. In addition to this, the sorority operated a toy cart at the Indiana Hospital, and sent Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families.

SIGMA KAPPA

The purpose of Sigma Kappa is to bring about a closeness not only between the women students but also between the school and community. The two main social events scheduled this year were a Christmas party and a co-ed party. The beginning of the year was devoted to the building of their float, "The Swan," and also to the organizing of an intramural volleyball team. Their national philanthropic project, a trip to the Old People's Home, was held in November. A friendly party which included entertainment, refreshments, and personal gifts made up the program. Outstanding recognition was obtained by Sigma Kappa at their National Convention in June for completing their sorority room without national financial aid. They were presented with a pair of sterling silver candelabra and matching candy dish.

The ideals of worthy womanhood and citizenship are held high by this active sorority. In the Homecoming parade, the Tri-Sigs' float, "April in Paris," won first prize. The members participated in the annual Greek Sing and held a joint outing for the children of Willard Home. Among the many activities which the sorority engaged in, the sale of candy and a rummage sale proved to be most profitable in raising money for their treasury. They sponsored an annual Thanksgiving Dance and held many other social meetings in which fun and fellowship were promoted.

Fun and fellowship gained through numerous projects and activities is one aim of the girls who wear the pink hats here on ISTC campus. Among the biggest activities for this fall was the furnishing of Theta Sigma Upsilon's new sorority room. For the festive Homecoming parade the Thetas decorated a float with the movie title "The Benny Goodman Story." In addition to this, the group held a Halloween party at the college lodge and they had their annual Christmas party in December.

The Senior Bonquet was held this spring as was also the "Mother Patroness Tea" during Swing Out Week in honor of the sorority members' mothers.

This sorority symbolizing a sisterhood which has as its aim spiritual, physical, social, and intellectual growth willingly strives to attain the goals set by the sorority.

The Zetas got an early start on their activities this year by holding a fall outing at Musser's Lodge. This was followed by Homecoming and the Zetas' entry "Toy Tiger," which provided the girls with fun and work preceding the big weekend. In October the sorority participated in the annual Greek Sing, observed Founders' Day, and held an open house with the Delta Sigma Phis. The coming of the second semester brought plans for rushing and pledging. With these completed, the pledge dance, which was the highlight of the year, took place at the country club. The annual Senior Farewell Banquet brought the year to a successful close in May.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each of the ten national sororities on campus. The purpose is to make laws governing rushing and to consider other problems pertaining to the sororities as a whole. The council undertook many activities this year. First of all they revised rushing rules for informal rushing. Plans were then begun for the Panhellenic Open House which was held in January. This was the first time that the entire student body and faculty had a chance to see the new sorority rooms after they had been redecorated. The second semester began with the Panhellenic Open House which was held for all girls interested in joining a sorority. The highlight of the year was the annual Panhellenic Ball held in March. This formal was for all the girls belonging to sororities and their dates. The evening was spent dancing to the music of Tommy Carlyn among Gothic pillars, statues of Greek deities, and Greek letters which appropriately depicted the theme "Grecian Interlude."

Delta Sigma Phi, a national fraternity, seeks for its members close friendships and a social life that will be remembered with enduring pleasure. A listing of the year's calendar events—Homecoming Open House, the Sailors' Ball, the Easter Egg Hunt for the Willard Home children, the March rush party, the Carnation Ball—tells but a small part of the story. The Delta Sigs will probably remember longer those impromptu song sessions around the piano, the good-natured horseplay that enlivened the academic routine, the harmonizing of the Four Chiefs—all Delta Sigs, the bull sessions that probed with exciting honesty into all departments of living, the house parties—those daffy costume affairs.

In September, the K. D. R.'s began their 56-57 year by obtaining two new advisers. Their social season was initiated in October with the entrance of their float "Helen of Troy" in the Homecoming Parade. Then followed an open house, a smoker, and the Greek Sing in which they sang the "Halls of Ivy." October ended with the annual fall rush party held in the frat house. November's activities included an open house and pledging. A Christmas Dance held early in December ended the first semester's activities. In March the Kappa Delta Rhos held their spring rush party at the lodge with pledging following later in the month. In April the brothers held another open house. Bringing the year's activities to a successful end was the Spring Formal held in May.

On December 8th they celebrated their annual Christmas party at the Eagles. The New Year was off to a good start with a professional meeting at Rustic Lodge. Early in February the men saluted their sweethearts at an entertaining Valentine party and later in the month they held their annual chicken-in-the-ruff rush party. FOOTBALL

Football at Indiana was on the upswing this year as the Indians rolled to five victories in nine games.

Coach Sam Smith unwrapped his 1956 football squad with a 20-7 victory over St. Vincent on a wet, muddy college Memorial Field. Indiana capitalized on several breaks to score two touchdowns and threatened twice more in the closing minutes of the game.

A week later Ball State of Muncie, Indiana defeated the Braves 26-0. After a scoreless first half, the Hoosier Collegiates caught fire, and with touchdown jaunts of 91, 22, and 15 yards, streaked to victory.

Displaying improvement in all departments, the Big Indians upset a favored California team and also spoiled their Homecoming with a 6-0 win. In the third quarter, Bill Hoffman's 20-yard pass to Bob McFarland provided the punch for the winning score.

Inspired by a Homecoming crowd of over 5,000, ISTC's eleven proved to be too much for highly regarded Edinboro. The locals displayed fine form in the last 30 minutes with pinpoint passing, daring runs, great catches, and fine line play. With Norm Lewandowski calling the shots, the Smithmen rolled on to a 14-6 win in the second half.

The mighty Rockets from Slippery Rock defeated the Redmen 30-9 despite a second half comeback by the Smithmen.

The next week the Redman avenged last year's loss to Clarion as they romped to a 31-0 victory. Bill Hoffman produced the nicest run of the day with his 60 yard punt return in the fourth quarter. Pat Mondock, Luke Lewandowski, Bill Hoffman, Lefty Riggs, and Dick Stevenson tallied the points for the ISTC Braves.

Demonstrating an aerial attack, the Big Indians overwhelmed and outclassed Lock Haven on the Eagles' field. The Indians were behind throughout most of the first half, but pushed across a touchdown with only 38 seconds remaining in the second quarter to take the lead. In the last half the Smithmen added 20 more points to their tally. Lock Haven's homecoming was marred by rain and a 39-21 defeat at the hands of Indiana.

The undefeated and untied Titans of Westminster continued on their winning ways at Memorial Field by trouncing the Indians 57-7. The Smithmen made it as rough as possible for the visitors; however, after six and a half minutes of scoreless ball the Titans completely ran away with the ball game. The final game of the season was played at Geneva. After an even three quarters, Geneva exploded for three touchdowns in the final stanza to top the Big Indians 31-6.

BASKETBALL

By losing to Geneva at Westminster, second of the playoffs in the NAIA Tourney, the ISTC cagers brought another basketball season to a close. The regular season play for the Indians was a 14-5 record. The Indians beat Washington and Jefferson in the first NAIA district, before losing to Geneva to wind up with a record of 15 wins, and 6 losses. Those losses were suffered at the hands of St. Vincent, Juniata, Slippery Rock, Carnegie Tech, and a double defeat by Geneva. High score for the year was the victory over Grove City, 118-68. The Indians had a well balanced scoring attack all season led by Delise with 357 points. Kimbrough and Bizyak also shared the bucket honors. To Indian fans, it looks as though Coach McKnight may have two upcoming stars to further aid the cagers next year. Roger Brooks scored 32 points against Clarion while his cousin, Dennis Brooks, controlled the boards in the NAIA Tourney. Loughlin, guard of the opponent's big scorer, could be counted on to give an excellent performance in every contest. McCracken's long set shots and layups, proved valuable to the success of the Big Indians. Not to be forgotten are the reserves, Fred Mata, Jim Falis, and Harry Carnahan, whom the team could rely on for that extra spurt and assistance. All in all the Indiana season was a big success.

BASEBALL

The Indiana baseball team completed the spring season with a teachers conference record of three wins and only one loss, and an overall record of 4-3. One run decided the victory for the Lock Haven teachers; the same margin favored Geneva. The Indians trounced Shippensburg for a double victory, only to have Duquesne hand them a shut out. Top batters for the Tribe were Jack "Blade" Bizyak and John Zedick with averages of .333. The pitching staff for the 1956 season included John Barley, with a 2-2 record and Bernie McCracken, sporting a 2-1 record.

TENNIS

On April 11th, ISTC opened up the tennis season against Pitt. Playing the first four positions were Jerry Lasso, Ruth Martin, Tom Korzi, and Andy Matey. The team usually consists of six players; however, two, have not yet been chosen. Those being considered are Karl Engleka, Dale Clossen, Dick Jones, Bill Cole, and Frank White. A 12 game schedule has been set up which includes Pitt, Duquesne, and Juniata. All these schools are noted for tennis. Last year's record included 6 wins and three losses. Coach James McKinley hopes to better the record despite the expanded schedule.

WRESTLING

Indiana's matmen finished their 1956-57 season of grappling with a record of six victories and three defeats. Under the guidance of Coach "Lew" Shaffer, the wrestlers chalked up impressive wins over West Virginia, Kiski Prep, Baldwin-Wallace, Fairmont, Case, and Edinboro. Their three losses came at the hands of powerful Waynesburg, Bloomsburg, and Millersville.

Led by Captain Larry Cramer, along with established wrestlers, Hach (8-1), Einsel (8-1), and Mason (6-2), the matmen provided fine matches for wrestling enthusiasts at ISTC.

Len Hoch, Dave Einsel, Bob Mason, Walt Carmo (5-4), John Conrad (4-3), Jim Dilts (2-3-1), and Tam Lacey (2-3-1) will return to Coach Shaffer's team next year, and will provide the bulwark of the 1957-58 squad.

WOMEN'S RECREATION ASSOCIATION

The Women's Recreation Association strives to promote interest in physical activities among the women of ISTC. Membership is open to all women. The W.R.A. executive board is comprised of four members from each class who attain their positions through application. This organization sponsors and supervises the women's intramural program, which consists of tournaments of volleyball, basketball, softball and table tennis. In September the W.R.A. held a sports party for the freshmen and a participants' party in both January and March. The year ended with a Play Day in April.

MEN'S VARSITY I

Those men who have won a letter for their participation in sports are eligible for membership in the Men's Varsity "I." This club is responsible for fostering a spirit of good fellowship, sportsmanship, and a friendly feeling of cooperation among athletes of this and other rival colleges. It is also the aim of the Varsity "I" to stimulate the interest of the student body in the athletic program of the college. This honor society has built up a loan fund to be used by those who are in good standing as members of the varsity athletic teams. The members of the Varsity "I" were responsible for the benefit game for the Dick Kadis Fund. These men represent the best of ISTC's athletic talent.
